Services for: Adults and Children

Age range: prenatal to adults (support services for parents)

Services offered: Being a parent is the most important, and sometimes, the hardest job you will ever have. You want what is best for your children: good health, quality education, a safe neighborhood, and hope for a bright future. We believe that "Parents are their child's first and most important teachers!" Our family support programs provide services through skilled staff, all in the comfort of your own home.

Parents as Teachers (PAT) Program and Parent Child Home Program (PCHP) offer child development education and assessments, home visitation, family literacy programs, and assistance to access early intervention services as needed.

Referral: Call the office for information. Email inquiries will also be responded to with information about how to enroll in appropriate services.
